

Door Assembler

Do you enjoy working with a team? With your hands? If so, this is a great opportunity to get your foot in the door of a booming industry with one of the nation's best! Our goal is to employ people who don't shy away from hard work and who are dedicated to what they do. There's no better time than now to join Carter Lumber.

Our Story

Carter Lumber was founded in 1932 by W.E. Carter. For 90 years, we have strengthened our company by staying true to our values, which include honesty, hard work, and putting people first. What started as a single lumberyard in Akron, Ohio, is represented today by seven brands servicing professional builders and homeowners across thirteen states with more than 160 locations. Despite our growth, we are still a family-owned company. Our core values and our people-first culture remain the same.

Description

Under minimal supervision, you will review each work order and ensure proper materials are available. You will then set up the necessary equipment and material to assemble the doors according to the design provided. This includes cutting components accurately, hinge and lockset prep, and cutting and fastenings jambs, stops, and casings. Various assembly machinery is used as well as power, air and hand tools. The goal is to complete orders accurately and according to schedule.
